

NASAL SPLINT

This aluminum nasal splint provides protection for the nose against trauma as well as preventing excessive soft tissue swelling which may distort nasal bone alignment.

It is made of light-weight aluminum which mold to any shape of nose and can be trimmed easily to adjust size.

The dorsal sponge provides patient comfort while the adhesive foam strips allow easy and efficient application and removal.